PRINCEVILLE MUSEUM

Rocky Mount

Princeville Heritage Museum is an immaculately restored schoolhouse that once housed Princeville Grade School and now provides interpretive displays that bring the town's rich history to life.

HALIFAX UNDERGROUND RAILROAD TRAIL

Rocky Mount

Halifax County has received three designations from the National Parks Service for National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom sites. These historic sites tell the story of "runaways," the dangers the river presented to Freedom Seekers, and how the Roanoke Navigation Company bought and sold slaves to build the Roanoke Canal.

TARBORO BREWING COMPANY

Tarboro

Tarboro Brewing Company has a large taproom which serves as a community space for all to come and enjoy games and fellowship with kindred spirits. There is a spacious covered outdoor area where visitors can sit and enjoy all the seasons while enjoying a beer.

TAR-PAMLICO WATER TRAIL

Tarboro

Explore the Tar River Trails comprised of 10 canoe and kayak accessible locations that connect over 20 miles of the Tar River and Stony Creek.

MEDOC MOUNTAIN STATE PARK

Hollister

Some of the park's 10 miles of hiking trails wander along the creek and others climb several hundred feet to the upper reaches of Medoc Mountain. You can even explore the trails on horseback.

SYLVAN HEIGHTS BIRD PARK

Scotland Neck

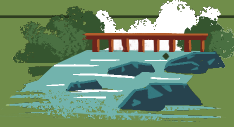

Discover the world's largest collection of rare and endangered waterfowl. Sylvan Heights gives visitors the opportunity to see over 2,500 birds from around the world, from ducks, geese and swans, to parrots, pheasants, cranes, owls, toucans, flamingos and more.

RIVER FALLS PARK

Weldon

Weldon is known as the "Rockfish Capital of the World." Every spring thousands of fishermen flock to the Roanoke River to catch their share of striped bass, also known as "Rockfish." A trailhead for the Roanoke Canal Trail, this park offers an overlook with sweeping views of the rapids of the Roanoke River.

WELDON MILLS DISTILLERY

Weldon

Weldon Mills Distillery is pouring spirits on the banks of the Roanoke River. Located in Weldon, it's just a "rock skip" from I-95, and offers a variety of whiskeys. They also produce a line of whiskey and apparel focused on rockfish preservation, as the fish is an important resource for the community.

LAKE GASTON / WAKE SURF

Littleton

Straddling the North Carolina and Virginia border between I-85 and I-95, Lake Gaston is a 20,000-acre lake at the VA-NC border. Lake Gaston is well-stocked with game fish, which include striped bass or "rockfish," largemouth bass, crappie, sunfish and several varieties of catfish.

Warrenton

SEVEN SPRINGS FARM & VINEYARD

Warrenton

A small, family owned and operated farm and vineyard with a passion for nature and love of cultivation stems from the generations that came before them. They offer wine tastings, tours of the vineyard, a beautiful pond, and occasional live performances with featured artists and entertainers.

LAKELAND ARTS CULTURAL CENTER

Warrenton

The theater has survived for more than 40 years thanks to the passions and talents of dedicated volunteers. Now, with generous support from the Ed Fitts Charitable Foundation, the theater has completed a very impressive renovation and expansion.

HALIWA SAPONI TRIBE

Hollister

The Haliwa-Saponi are Native American Peoples of the North East Piedmont region of NC. "Haliwa" is derived from the two counties of Halifax and Warren, which are the ancestral homelands of the Saponi People dating back to the early 18th Century.

The Tribe consists of over 4,000 Citizens that live all over the US. Most of the members live in tight-knit communities on the border of Halifax & Warren Counties with Hollister serving as the Tribal Center.
